Hyghastika.—A Spredy And Certain Cure For Incursing the deformers, toothache, norrous headache, and rheumatim in the head, and a sure preventive of convulsions, or any other complaints attendant upon early childhedd during the period of techning, has been discovered, and is now being successfully administered in the form of a medicated necklace, to be worn next the skin by the patient. An eminent German physician discovered the virtues of the valuable medicines of which the bends of the necklace are made, and prescribed the mode of application. The notice of the public is not, therefore, called to a quack medicine, but to a medicament recommended by one of the most eminent of the faculty, as peculiarly powerful in acting through the pores of the skin directy upon the diseased or excited nerves, affording, generally, instant, and always permanent relief, and effecting a permanent cure. Patients who, at twenty-four hours teni of the medicated necklace, according to prescription, find no relief, may, at the close of that period, by immediately returning the same, receive back their money.— SCHUEFNER & MULDENDER.

TETIMONY.—I do hereby certify that the composition of the medicated necklace offered by Schuffner & Muldener, is of such a nature as to unfailingly produce the most atisfactory results.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS.—PROF. MELLER, THE unrivalled Wirard of Wizards and Prince of Magicians, will positively withdraw his present attractive entertainment after this afternoon and evening, January 29, and give his new and original experiments, which will defy the whole race of travelling conjurors to compete with or understand. In addition to other wonders and scientific experiments, will be presented, for the first time, a new and original feat, called the MYSTERIOUS RAPPINGS, being an expose of the so-called clever humbug that is now puzzling the whole population of the United States. The great success of Mr. Robert Heller's feat of Second Sight, which is the theme of conversation in every circle of New York, has determined him to continue the experiment, in addition to his other wondrous feats. The paraphernalia of the stage is on a scale of unapproachable elegance, and the apparatus most costly and scientific. Performances to commence at 3 o'clock this afternoon, and at 73 this evening. Admission, 50 cents; children, half-price.

PROFESSOR MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR, OR cordial.

THE SIGHTH WONDER OF THE BOTANIC WORLD.

THE BOHTH WONDER OF THE BOTANIC WORLD.

CURE OF NURVOUS DESIGNS.

No lauguage can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost mirroulous change which it occasions in the diseased, debilitated, and shattered nervous system. Whether broken down by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivitied and built up. The mental and physical symptoms of nervous disease vanish together under its influence. The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man—he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom, or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright, buoyant, active, and he goes forth refreshed, regenerated, and conscious of new vigor, to his accustomed occupations. Nor is the effect temporary. On the contrary, the relief is permanent, for the cordial properties of the medicine reach the constitution itself, and restore it to its normal condition. Well may the preparation be called the properties of the member reach the constitution lived, and restore it to its normal condition. Well may the preparation be called the MEMORIAL WONDER of the nineteenth century. It is, as the first scientific men in the Old World have admitted, that miracle of medicine heretofore supposed to have no existence.

A STIMILANT THAT EXTRIES NO REACTION.

It is the only infallible remedy yet discovered for nervous head and mind complaints; it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found—the only natural agent that can "administer to a mind discovered for nervous head and mind complaints; it is the mental physic, long sought for, and never before found—the only natural agent that can "administer to a mind discovered for nervous affections, it will produce a cure in an astonishing short period of time; and it will also remove depression, excitement, a tendoncy to blush, restlossness, sleepleasness, dislike of society, incapacity for study or business, loss of memory, contaction, giddiness, blood to the lead, melancholy, mental dability, hysteria, indecision, wretoledness, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of instanity &c. perate cares, necreat rearrant cares, alter perates are been abandoned, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practioners of high professional character.

My office having been in a store where this cordial was kept for sale for ever three years, and my opportunities of judging of its effects somewhat numerous, the vastly increasing demand, and that without a single advertisement, tells for itself. I have seen a case of weakness, which had resisted all treatment for over five years, both in this place and in Philadelphia, and the person a fair candidate for suicide, radically cured with one dozen bottles. He had spent hundreds without relief, and was cured with twenty four dollars worth of Dr. Morse's cordial.

A. RENDALL, M. D.

Dr. Morse—Sir—Some time since you requested my opinion of the virtues of your invigorating Cordial—I am now prepared to give it. I have had it in my practice and prescribed it for the last few months, and must give it my decaded preference over anything of the kind with which I am acquained. I am much pleased with its effects, and can with confidence recommend it to the patronage of the profession, as a valuable auxiliary for removing disense in some of the most troublesome forms, and to all, as a safe raid valuable medicine.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion—By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Discasses of Women. Twenticth edition, 16mo, pp. 253.

Price 51. Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish, to many an affectionate wife, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly.

Here also, every female—the site, the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most efficient remedies, and the most cortain mode of cure, in every complaint to which her sex is subject. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Chie.)

Dr. A. M. Manderau, 123 Liberty street.

My Pear Sir—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during berconfinement—every successive one more and more debitating and producting her confinement—every successive one more and more debitating and producting her putting her life in imminent danger, and which was, on the last occasion, depalted of I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned myleif to meet the worst. At this time, (new about two months.) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and percual, I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages impospect to me which illife conceived was possible. But for this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children both motheriess.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the serious subjects tre
